Thiago VITAMINA

Senior product designer · São Paulo, Brazil

designdasilva@gmail.com thiagovitamina.com linkedin.com/in/thiagovitamina

Open to full-time roles and projects. Remote, working with teams in Brazil and the US.

Summary

I design products end to end: research, flows, interfaces, prototypes and the systems that hold them together. I made my first website in 1996. Since then I have led design at agencies and startups and worked inside product teams in Brazil and the US.
